

WHAT IS A CITING COMPLAINT

---

REPORTING

7

DAYS

A citing may be made, whether or not the alleged act of Foul Play was seen by a Match Official.

Acts of Foul Play contrary to Law 9 that reaches the red card threshold.

Burden will be placed on the Citing Player and/or Club to show that had the Match Official seen the alleged act of foul play a red card should have been awarded.

If the Referee had awarded a yellow card for the offence, the burden will be on the Citing Player and the Citing Club that the Referee should have awarded a red card.

Sufficient evidence to establish a prima facie case.

CITING COMPLAINTS – HOW TO REPORT

